DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-12 are pending and subject to restriction requirement.

Restriction

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-10, drawn to a drug composition comprising microparticles from blood, classified in class 435, subclass 2, for example.
- II. Claim 11, drawn to a process for promoting regeneration of bone tissues, classified in class 435, subclass 366, for example.
- III. Claim 12, drawn to a method of using aqueous suspension of blood derived microparticles for making drug composition, classified in class 424, subclass 93.72, for example.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

The inventions are Group I and Group III are distinct because they require different components as claimed. The product of Group I is a dry composition with blood-derived microparticles that is provided in a freeze-dried form as claimed and intended for topical application as claimed. The method of making product of the Group III requires the use of aqueous suspension of blood-derived microparticles that is intended for growth of osteoblasts as claimed.

Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case drug with microparticles derived from blood or composition with thrombocytes can be used for treating patients with leukemia, for example: see US 5,004,604 at col. 7, lines 1-4.

Art Unit: 1651

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one group is not required for the other groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Objections

Claims 4-11 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form of multiple dependent claims. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 4-11 cannot be properly further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 12 provides for the use of aqueous suspension of blood microparticles, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).
